Theatre for Little Stars

Welcome to Theatre for Little Stars, a dynamic and fun-filled class designed for children ages 3-5.

This fall, your child will embark on an exciting adventure where they will explore the work of theatre through imaginative play, movement, and storytelling. In this class, we nurture creativity and self-expression by guiding our young stars through engaging activities that spark their imagination. From pretending to be animals, to playing dress-up and creating their own characters, every week offers a new opportunity to dive into the magical world of theatre. Our experienced instructors create a safe, supportive environment where children feel encouraged to express themselves freely. Whether they are acting out a favorite story, creating their own play, or dancing to music, each activity helps children grow their confidence and discover the joy of performance. Join us this fall to give your little one the tools to become a confident, creative star!
